

Great Change

The one constant in life is “Change”, what an irony. Yes ladies and Gentleman, “Change is in the air: Although some of you may not be familiar with me, therefore, this is a wonderful opportunity for me to introduce myself to you, and hopefully establish a long lasting connection as your preferred stylist. I have a wealth of experience as well as creative talents. More importantly, what I believe that will be of most value to you is my professionalism and experience as it relates to promoting healthy hair without compromising your individuality. I’m most thankful for my experience with the company: Hair Cuttery; while there I was able to broaden my scope as it relates to ethnic and cultural diversity. In addition, while being employed their as a stylist I came to the conclusion that clients should get the optimum hair care services without having to pay astronomical prices. Therefore, everyone should have the expectation of healthy hair whether you’re a man or woman, wear weave, or have short or long hair. It’s because of these principles that I am able to offer my services at competitive prices and I am confident that you will feel well compensated for the capital you have entrusted in me, “Now that’s A Change to Look forward towards”.
